Citrus Memorial and United Healthcare Strike Deal

United Healthcare to offer members in-network access to Citrus Memorial for hospital and primary care services

United Healthcare, a UnitedHealth Group (NYSE: UNH) company, and Citrus Memorial Health System today announced a new network agreement to include United Healthcare's Medicare Advantage and commercial insurance plans. Beginning July 1, 2010, individuals enrolled in these United Healthcare plans will have in-network access to Citrus Memorial Health hospital, Citrus Primary Care physicians, and Citrus Memorial's specialists in the areas of orthopedics, cardiac surgery, anesthesia, wound care and physical therapy.

United Healthcare offers Medicare Advantage plans that carry the Secure Horizons, AARP and Evercare brands.

"This new agreement expands our network for Medicare beneficiaries in West Florida and builds upon our strong relationship with Citrus Memorial Health System," said Kathy Winans, United Healthcare executive director in Florida. "We look forward to providing our members with in-network access to Citrus Memorial hospital, their primary care physicians and specialists."

"Citrus Memorial is looking forward to our new and expanded partnership with United Healthcare," said Mark Williams, Citrus Memorial Chief Financial Officer. "This new agreement will allow us to continue to offer in-network services to UHC members through our high quality hospital and clinics in the region. We look forward to building on this strong foundation with United Healthcare and its membership."
